

“What’s New?”

A Note from Kandice: Since 1986, I’ve been making dishes, vases, figurines and jewelry, but now my retirement years have begun. My figurines are retiring along with me, but I’m still interested in continuing some of my jewelry designs which are still being produced, although at a slower pace. New and different work will be featured on this page. Please view all my work by using the link to the PDF files on the home page.

All items are now 60% off through this web site only. The prices you see listed will be cut by 60%. If you are fortunate to be on the Big Island you can come to my home and save the shipping cost. If you want the item shipped, the shipping cost will be based on the retail price. The shipping costs these days is astronomical, so I can’t afford to cut the price on the shipping on wholesale prices.

Please send me an email: KandiceCrusat@gmail.com and the item you are interested in for current prices and shipping costs. Thank you!

Enchanted Fantasies Figurines are still being carried by this retail store on the Big Island:
Chantal’s Boutique at the Alii Gardens Market Place, Kailua-Kona (808) 430-3291

One of my newer designs:
Beautifully Embroidered “Little Bags of Joy”

Pretty little bags to hold special treasures. Bags feature different embroidered designs on the front and hold a printed collection of words of wisdom, encouragement and joy, by famous and not so famous people.
